PROGRAM PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT –

AUTISTIC STUDENTS

7 JULY – HOBART, AEU OFFICE – 9.00 AM TO 3.00 PM

8 JULY – LAUNCESTON, YORK PARK – 9.00 AM TO 3.00 PM

MORNING TEA AND LUNCH PROVIDED

Presenter Jim Crawford – being used by Special Education Settings in Victoria (Special Schools) – Jim’s methods are different and possibly confronting but will present an excellent day’s professional learning.

I am a teacher [who happens to be autistic] who has become a behaviour specialist . [Funnily enough we autistics do behave!] Presentations, there will be two parts: I will talk about being autistic in relation to being neurotypical and then link that material to comparative methods of a managing and teaching autistics and children in general.

Specialist Skills:

- Program planning and development for special populations, especially autistic and blind autistic people.
- Program support for staff in schools, adult services or residential services for special populations.
- Staff training in developmental programming and behaviour intervention with special emphasis on communication behaviour: I have presented scores of lectures to parents, professional groups, tertiary students, etc.
- Clinical supervision of other professional staff in behaviour management and program development. [I train staff in the “art” of teaching.]
- Advanced practitioner in behaviour management: specialising in behaviour management with clients of all ages displaying the most extreme and dangerous challenging behaviour.
